54 Welcome Day

Welcome to the SZTE UNIVERSITY OF SZEGED

On behalf of all members of our University, it is our pleasure to greet you at SZTE (abbreviation in Hungarian of Szegedi Tudományegyetem). You have just joined an academic community which is proud of its traditions and high standard of education. A wonderful and exciting time is ahead of you with a lifetime experience and boundless opportunities.

We know that finding your way in a foreign country can be challenging, that is why we designed this guide to help you with the very first steps towards your stay in Szeged. We hope that with the help of this booklet and our colleagues you will find your way around the University and the city.

We wish you a pleasant stay in Szeged and a productive academic career.

Arrival

ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK (ESN)

ESN Mentors, as members of a non-governmental, volunteer-based student organisation in Europe, are volunteers who help foreign students with governmental scholarships settling down in Szeged. In cooperation with the University, they help newly arrived students starting their academic and social life at SZTE and Szeged. ESN and their events bring international students closer to the local community, and last but not least, they make friends with them, all in order to provide opportunities for cultural understanding and self-development.

Contact your mentor in case of questions regarding your student life in Szeged, such as accommodation, student card, public services in Szeged, health issues etc. via e-mail or visit them in the office.

Contacts: president@szeged.esn.hu

Address: 6 Boldogasszony sgt., Szeged

FACULTY MENTORS

The so-called Faculty Mentors also assist international students in handling programmes of the Faculty of Arts, Economics, Agriculture, and the Faculty of Medicine. As for the programmes at the Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy, the mentors of ISUS are your contact persons when you have questions regarding student life at SZTE. Please contact your programme coordinators or your admission officers to find your mentor.

Public Transport

Szeged is an easily walkable city, however buses, trolley buses, and trams are all available means of transportation. Bus tickets can be purchased almost anywhere in the town in kiosks, and even on board by PayPass bank card. For using a bus, tram or trolley bus, one needs to purchase a valid ticket. Tickets have to be validated on the vehicle. Daily, weekly, monthly passes are also available and university students are entitled to have discounts by using their Student Card.

Online Systems

Your Login Data to the below mentioned online platforms is provided at the registration.

NEPTUN is an online admission system providing administrative platform to students, academic and non-academic staff, where each student will be provided with his own login code and password. The website is designed to register for subjects, exams and manage their financial and administrative data. Students will also find their grades and class schedules updated on Neptun. Therefore it is important that you get familiar with the system.

➤ www.web2.neptun.u-szeged.hu/hallgato/login.aspx

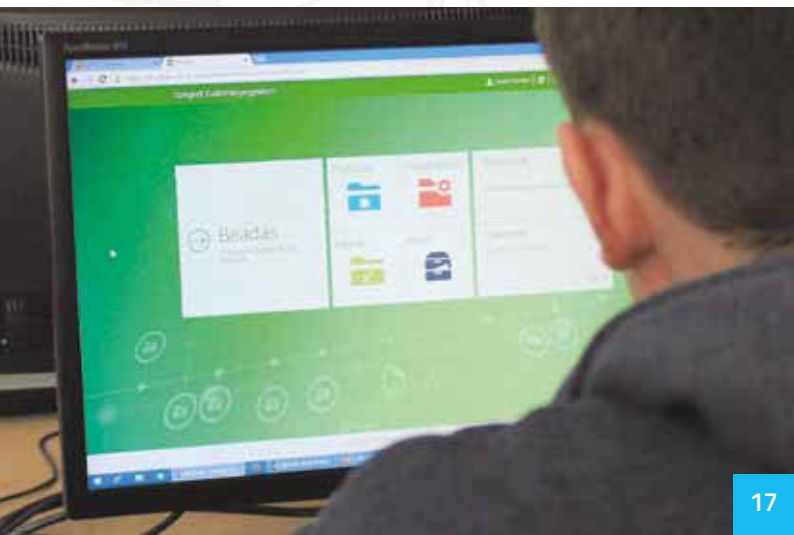

COOSPACE is an online communication tool where students can log in to their account. With this account students have access to materials regarding the courses that they registered for. Coospace is also used for contacting your teachers and submitting the acquired assignments during the semester.

➤ www.coosp.etr.u-szeged.hu/

MODULO is an online platform assisting students in 50 administrative issues. Procedures of programmes, departments or faculties may vary, and their descriptions are attached to the forms.

Grading System and Credits in Hungary

LOCAL CREDITS

Since Hungary is a member of the European Union, Hungarian higher education institutions are part of the European Higher Education Area. Credits and degrees gained in Hungary are transferable to other European institutions. An ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) equivalent system was introduced in Hungary in September 2003 to be applied in all higher education institutions. The minimum credit number for a Bachelor's degree is 180, for a Master's degree it is 120, and for a doctoral degree it is 240.

National Holidays

During these days all shops are closed and transport is rarefied, so make sure you have all what you need before these official holidays!

- On 23 October: Hungarians celebrate the 1956 Revolution Memorial Day (Forradalom). On this day, they commemorate the uprising that started against communist oppression in 1956.
- 1 November is All Saints Day, day of remembrance of lost ones, where Christian families decorate the graves by flowers and candles.
- In Hungary the Christmas tree is decorated on Christmas Eve, therefore Hungarians are granted a holiday on 25 and 26 December.

- March 15th is the Memorial Day of the 1848-49 Revolution for Independence. Hungarians celebrate it with music and speeches. Many people wear a cockade with the national colours of the Hungarian flag.
- Hungarians celebrate Easter (Húsvét), the date of which is changing every year. This holy holiday is celebrated and marked as a public holiday.
- May Day or Labour Day is also a holiday in Hungary and falls on 1st May when we also celebrate the beginning of spring.
- The Christian feast day of Pentecost „Pünkösöd” is a bank holiday as well, it is the 7th Monday after Easter Sunday.
- 20th August is the day of the foundation of Hungary, which is celebrated with fireworks and day-long festivities.

Health Insurance

PRIVATE HEALTH INSURANCE (GENERALI STUDIUM)

The Generali STUDIUM provides full coverage of the costs of justified medical treatment; 50% of coverage of the costs of medicine and therapeutic aids.

If your claim is grounded, the insurance company shall reimburse your medical expenses – up to the applicable limit and reduced by the deductible – within 15 days upon receipt of all documents to the insurance company necessary for the assessment of the claim.

Application

More information: ➔ www.u-szeged.hu/english/health-issues/private-health-insurance

GOVERNMENTAL HEALTH INSURANCE (TAJ CARD)

Students with Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship or with a Hungarian governmental scholarship are entitled to health care services in accordance with Act 53/1997 (point i, section 1, §16) and they are entitled to have a social security card („TAJ card”). With TAJ card (the card for Hungary’s national health insurance scheme), scholarship holders are able to access public healthcare for free, not just emergency or urgent care.

Application

You can apply for a TAJ card in the Directorate for International and Public Relations. Please note that you can do it only after obtaining your permanent residence permit. It is important, that it takes minimum 2–3 weeks to complete, so please do it as soon as you can.

You will need the following documents:

- copy of passport,
- copy of residence permit,
- copy of accommodation reporting form (little white paper from the Immigration Office),
- certification about your registration at the University in Hungarian language, you can get it in the Admission Office of your faculty (in Hungarian TO – Tanulmányi Osztály).

Student ID Card

TEMPORARY STUDENT ID

In order to obtain a temporary student ID, you must have an active status in the Neptun. You can't be active if you have not taken any courses. If you have, and you are still not active, please go to your faculty's Admission's Office. If you are active, go to the HSZI with your passport and ask for a temporary student ID. It is only valid with your passport or ID card. Pay attention to the expiry date. If it expires and you still haven't received your permanent student ID, please go back to the HSZI and ask for another temporary one.

PERMANENT STUDENT ID CARD

If you need to obtain this document by yourself (ask your programme coordinator, if so) you will need to do the following. After being registered at the HSZI please go to the Government Office

Address: 1 Rákóczi tér, Szeged

to ask for a permanent (plastic) student ID.

You will need:

- your admission letter,
- passport,
- papers you got from HSZI.

At the Government Office they will take a nice photo of you and you will be given an A4 size sheet of paper, the NEK form (adatlap). Take it back to the HSZI for uploading it to the MODULO. Please do it as soon as possible, because it takes one month for the Government Office to produce your plastic card.
