

FDITE38 Radiology in oncology

(András Palkó)

Description:

The course aims to provide basic knowledge about imaging procedures used in oncological research and patient care

Main topics:

Epidemiology, pathology, pathophysiology of cancer

Principles of staging

Therapeutic options

Performance of individual imaging procedures

The role of imaging in treatment planning and disease monitoring

Imaging-guided interventions